

LET'S TALK TOGETHER!

What is Let's Talk Together?

- It's a stress-free atmosphere offering OKU students and instructors the opportunity to strengthen their communicative abilities in English.

What is the purpose of Let's Talk Together?

- to practice and improve speaking and listening skills through role playing, practice exercises, group activities and discussions,
- to overcome shyness and fear of speaking English,
- to practice and improve conversation skills, focusing on a variety of real-life situations,
- to improve self-expression and critical thinking.

When are the sessions going to be?

- Every Monday, at 15.30-17.00.

Where are the sessions going to take place?

- At School of Foreign Languages (SFL) by our instructors (by Kübra ÖRSDEMİR / by Iryna ÜNLÜ)

How many participants will take place in this platform?

- Approximately 15 participants will be accepted to the sessions.

How shall I register?

- Applications for the Speaking Platform are done in OKU School of Foreign Languages. For the first session, you need to fill out the application form by April 21st 2017 (only 15 participants, who have first applied, will be accepted to the sessions). The participants who have filled out the application form can see whether they have been accepted to join the speaking platform through the list which will be revisited every week.

Is there any kind of evaluation process?

- No, but constructive feedback could be given to our students and instructors. As for a prerequisite, the participants are expected to come prepared to the platform by checking the conversation topics in the schedule.

What are our conversation topics?

Date	Topic
